LEWIS & Co.

Take the matter of cheese and you will find we have about every brand manufactured. It's a common sort of thing, is cheese, in a general way, but if you're giving a dinner as much attention should be paid to the selection of it as to the joint. Here's a partial list from which you may select a suitable finish to your Thanksgiving dinner.

Edam, Holland, Pine Apple, Parmesan, Swiss, Roquefort, Gorgonzola, Cavenbert, Menanta, California Extra, Oregon Cream, New York Cream, Sap Sago, Limburger, Noregay Club, New York Sage, Kro-nenkase, Camenbert, Sierra Neuchatel and Romatour received on ice by each steamer.

These are of the finest grades made and may be relied upon as being always fresh.

Health and Strength RESTORED

BY THE USE OF
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Mrs. M. A. Cumming, of Yarraville, Victoria, Australia, Says:

"About a year ago, I had a severe attack of Influenza, which left me very weak, without energy, appetite, or interest in life. Obtaining little or no relief from doctors, or from the many remedies recommended to me, I finally tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and from that time began to gain health and strength.
I continued the treatment until fully recovered, and now have very great pleasure in telling my friends of the merits of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and the happy results of its use. I consider it the best blood-purifier known."

LOCAL ART EXHIBITION

HANDSOME PRODUCTIONS IN THE DECORATED CHINA BRANCH.

List of the Exhibits and Contributors —Work in Carving and Plastic Moulding.

Since the first exhibition of the Kilohana Art League, no branch of its functions has been more gratifyingly developed than that of china decoration. In this Miss Frederika J. Nolte was the pioneer, became the instructor of other young ladies and, in this autumn exhibition, contributes more than the other four exhibitors together. It should be stated that Miss Nolte is a thorough adept in this art, having her own kiln, at the parental residence in Kapiolani park, for baking in the colors. It will be seen from the following list what a rich variety this young lady contributes on this occasion:

90, Dinner set; 91, Rose jar, green and gold; 92, Jelly jar, holly design; 93, Cream pitcher, violet; 104, Chocolate set, wild roses; 105, After Dinner Coffee, holly berries; 106, Pink Dogwood Blossoms; 107, After Dinner Coffee Cup in blue and gold; 108, Rose Jar in gold decoration; 109, Decorated Berry Set; 110, Ribbon Plates, landscape; 111, Custard Set in blue and gold.

Mrs. E. M. Willis has the following pieces: 94, Tea, raspberries; 99, Yellow Roses; 100, Raspberries; 102, Cyclamen; 103, Passion Flowers.

Miss Bessie F. French: 96, Roses and Cupids—a charming work, showing an almost fairy hand; 98, Orchids.

Mrs. B. F. Dillingham: 95, Sweet Peas.

Miss Bessie Afong: 97, Sweet Peas and Scroll; 101, Fleur de Lis.

On members' opening night the cabinet containing the decorated china received such overwhelming attention that it was difficult to approach. The progress of this branch of art here has been such as to give promise of a time soon coming when china decorated by local artists, in domestic flora and scenery, will be a feature in every refined table service of Hawaiian homes. Handsome souvenirs of Hawaii for gifts to friends abroad, or for tourists to carry away, could hardly be selected.

Another interesting branch of art in this exhibition comprises wood carving and plastic moulding. Mrs. Augusta H. Graham is its only exponent, but her enthusiastic industry, joined to fine talent, makes this department a very agreeable feature of the gallery. Her productions are true to nature and have an artistic finish.
The list is as follows, making a handsome variety of house decorations:

43, Koa panel, ohia; 44, Chinese oranges, clay modeling; 45, koa panel, mangoes; 65, pomegranates, panel; 66, bananas, panel; 72, water lilies, plaster cast.

The exhibition is open from 10 to 5 o'clock daily, and Monday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9. For the nominal admission fee of 25 cents anybody may see this fine collection of local art.

Library Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Honolulu Library and Reading Rooms Association will be held at Library Hall on the evening of Friday, November 27th, at 6:30 o'clock, for the election of officers, reading of annual reports and such other business as may be brought up.

Jayasuraya has removed his stock of Ceylonese novelties from King street to No. 6 Hotel street, opposite Ozaki, where he will be pleased to serve customers with anything in his line from a silver collar button to a $500 diamond.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS

LONDON TIMES ALARMED AT RUSSIAN AND FRENCH NAVIES.

Better News From India—Slavery Abolished in Madagascar—Li Hung Chang's Offense.

The Warrimoo brings the following items of fresh foreign news:

THE FAMINE IN INDIA.
London, November 9.—The Earl of Elgin, Governor General of India, reports that the prospects in the famine stricken districts of India are now more reassuring.

LI HUNG CHANG'S FINE.

London, November 9.—It is now reported that the fine of one year's salary imposed upon Li Hung Chang, the Chinese Viceroy, was for proposing that the European ceremony of saluting the Emperor should be observed in China, and not as previously stated, for visiting the Dowager Empress without the permission of the Emperor.

A PRIEST KIDNAPPED.

London, Nov. 9.—Dr. Alfred Earle, Bishop of Marlborough, has stated that some time ago he prepared for admission to the Church of England a priest who had twice been the Pope's special missioner. When the priest was ready to enter the Church of England he was kidnapped and taken to France, where he is still detained.

MADAGASCAR.

London, November 9.—From Madagascar it is reported that General Gallieni, the French Resident General, has abolished slavery in the island, and has reduced the Hova Queen, Ranava-lona III, to a position of subjection to the French. General Gal-lieni is greatly in favor of the Roman Catholic Church, and it is likely that the English and Norwegian mission schools will be closed.

THE NAVIES OF EUROPE.

London, November 9.—The Times reports that the Russian and French naval authorities are building 15 line of battle ships, while Great Britain has only 12 under construction. Commenting upon this fact the Times declares that the position is alarming, and urges Mr. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, to adopt measures which will be the means of placing Great Britain's naval supremacy beyond assault or dispute.

THE TURKISH TROUBLE.

London, November 9.—The Paris newspapers are reserved in their comments on the report that the Sultan of Turkey had decided to make considerable concessions to the Armenians. They, however, assert that it remains for France and Russia to bring the Sultan to reason. Advices from Constantinople state that the Sultan has reduced the salaries of Turkish officials by 15 per cent.

The Paris Temps has made an important announcement respecting the Turkish trouble. On November 3, M. Hanotaux, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs, delivered a speech in the Chamber of Deputies, during the course of which he said the Czar and he had exchanged views regarding the Turkish question, and that the Czar had declared the Powers were determined to ameliorate the condition of Turkey without breaking the integrity of the Ottoman Empire. The Czar had added that United Europe would make the Sultan understand the situation. The Temps says that this speech was cabled to the Sultan, and he had an interview with M. Cambon, the French Minister in Constantinople.
This conference lasted three hours, and shortly afterwards the Sultan issued his promises to release all Armenian prisoners against whom no charges are pending, to convene an Assembly

The Roanoke's Cargo.

The big ship Roanoke, which carried away the largest cargo of sugar ever sent out of these islands, had bad luck with her cargo. Ten thousand five hundred bags of sugar, valued at $80,000, was found to be soaked with salt water on arrival at New York. The trouble is said to have been caused by the long passage of 136 days and consequent leakage.

TROUBLE ON THE BRYANT

A SAILOR TRIES TO CHEW UP CAPTAIN LEE.

And Attempts to Murder the First and Second Mate—Brought Here in Irons.

Captain Jack Lee of the C. D.
Bryant had lots of trouble on his last voyage to and from Newcastle, New South Wales, with one of his sailors. The man is a hard case and has been here before. He was one of the crew of the Dirigo, which loaded sugar here a few months since, but deserted in this port. He was afterwards captured by Captain Harry Evans of the waterfront police and was shipped away to the Coast on one of the sugar vessels. He turned up a few months later at Newcastle and shipped on the C. D. Bryant at that port. He made trouble before leaving, after getting an advance, and it required the united strength of seven Australian police to put him on board.

Once out at sea the man, whose name is John Pitman or Pickerton, started in to boss the ship.
He made trouble in the fore-castle from the start and succeeded in terrifying the crew. He then concluded to clean out the after part of the ship, starting in on the burly captain. During the melee which ensued he got his teeth into one of the captain's hands, biting it severely. The two mates went to the captain's assistance and Pitman threatened to murder them.
As a matter of precaution the man was finally put in irons and kept under restraint for the balance of the voyage.

Captain Lee placed the matter in the hands of Consul General Mills and until that official decides what shall be done in the case declined to be interviewed.
His mate, who was visited by a reporter on board, also declined to make any statement at present.
There is little doubt that the Consul will send the man to San Francisco by the U. S. S. Adams for trial before the proper United States Court.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

Some Extracts From the Queen's Hospital Records.

Superintendent Eckardt kindly furnishes the following list of patients suffering from accidental injuries received at the Queen's hospital in the last five days. He has somewhat facetiously christened the building of which he has charge as the "Accidental hotel."

Nov. 19—J. Davies, fracture left leg. This man is from Campbell's ranch at Honeae.

Nov. 20—Vitense, native child 4½ years old, was burnt by having his clothing set on fire through matches, died at 1 p. m. Accident happened at Kalihi.

Nov. 22—Maria Agimar, 8 years old, Portuguese from Kauai. Dis-location of right thigh.

Nov. 22—Joe Mai, native sailor from the Likelike. Compound fracture of left leg and left arm and scalp wound.

Nov. 22—Johnny Larsen, run over by heavy dray.

Nov. 23—H. J. Bagley, injury to left leg by falling into the hold of the Gainsborough.

Nov. 23—Kalamakai, scalp wound, caused by being thrown off a horse.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTEEN CASES ON THE CALENDAR.

The Ashworth Case Again on Trial—Fines and Penalties Assessed by Judge de la Vergne Today.

Judge de la Vergne has recovered from his recent indisposition and presided at the seat of justice in the District Court this morning. The accumulated business of three days made up a calendar of 113 cases.

Nine drunks were assessed $2 and costs each and one was fined $3 for being more than usually drunk.

In the case of Apana, charged with distilling okolehao, lawyers Kaulukou and Kaulia appeared for the defense and the case was set for trial on Nov. 30th.

Kaialii pleaded guilty of selling swipes and had his sentence suspended.

The cases of Otto Graaf, A. W.
Howe and Ed. Hopkins, charged with carrying on a gambling resort, went over, the first to December 1st and the last to December 8th. The thirty odd persons charged with frequenting a place where gambling was going on also had their cases postponed to the 1st of the month.

Six Chinese domino gamblers were fined $10 each and costs and the rest of the two bunches arrested were discharged.

Seven Chinese were fined $1 and $1 costs each for breaking the Sunday law by keeping their stores open.

Higashi had his sentence suspended on a plea of guilty of driving a vehicle at night without a light.

Pung Lan was fined $30 for having chefa tickets in his inside vest pocket and Pahulani $15 for assault and battery.

Lee Kong was fined $50 and costs for opium in possession and a number of other similar cases went over.

John Ku and Brito, charged with furiously and heedlessly riding horses along the public highway, and thereby endangering the safety of Mrs. William Hoogs, pleaded not guilty, and their cases were set for trial tomorrow.

The balance of the morning session was taken up with the examination of another witness in the Ashworth liquor case, which was then postponed until to-morrow.

Hawaiian Fishes.

The scientists of the United States Fish Commission are much interested in Mrs. B. F. Dillingham's oil paintings of Hawaiian fishes. This lady has completed over one hundred individual fishes in natural colors. They constitute a valuable collection and if reproduced in lithography would make a most interesting and handsome souvenir book, fully equal in beauty to similar works on Australian birds which have long since been issued. In the meantime the Albatross party will endeavor to photograph the collection, but this process leaves out the rare coloring.

Portuguese Holiday.

The Portuguese of Hawaii have adopted their national independence day, December 1, for observance as a holiday. On that date all employers of Portuguese are expected to kindly release them from their labors so that they may fully enjoy the festival. There will be services in the churches in daytime and literary exercises in the evening.
